

A long, long time ago...

the Jewish people were slaves in the land of Egypt.

It was terrible being a slave!

They had to work, work, work every day and every night building cities for Pharaoh, the king of Egypt.

Pharaoh was afraid that the Jewish slaves would rise up against him...

so he ordered that every Jewish baby boy be killed!

A Jewish mother named Yocheved put her baby into a basket and put the basket in the river.

His big sister, Miriam,
went with him to keep him safe.

That day, the princess was swimming in the river.

She found the baby and decided to raise him
as her own son. She named him Moses.

Moses grew up to be a Prince of Egypt...

but he didn't like seeing the suffering of the slaves.

Moses left Egypt and became a shepherd.

One day, Moses saw a miraculous sight...

a bush that burned, but didn't burn up!
He heard the voice of God telling him
to go back to Egypt and set his people free.

Moses went back to Egypt and said to Pharaoh...

LET MY PEOPLE GO!!!

God sent TEN PLAGUES!

*The 10
Plagues
Of Egypt*

Frogs & hail & lice & flies,
10 plagues in Egypt land!
1 by 1 'til Pharaoh cried!

10 plagues

in Egypt land!

Finally Pharaoh let the Jewish people go!

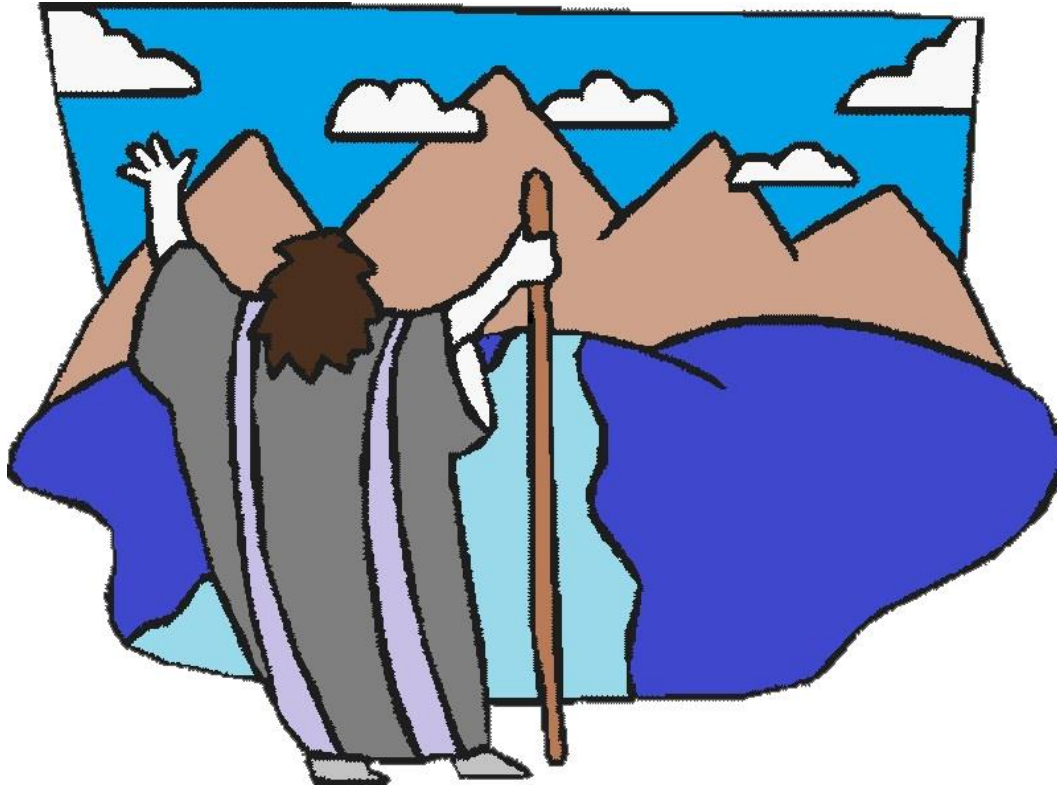

They left as quickly as they could,
taking their half-baked bread with them.

But it wasn't long before
Pharaoh changed his mind!

The Israelites were trapped between Pharaoh's army and the sea in front of them!

Then Moses raised his staff,
and the sea parted!

The Israelites crossed to the other side,
and rejoiced that they were free!

Miriam led the Israelites
in song and dance!

Mi Chamocha ba'eylim Adonai!
Who is like You, O God?!

After  $39\frac{1}{2}$  years of wandering in the desert, Mrs. Moses secretly asks for directions.
