Come On In

by Ellen Allard, adapted lyrics by Lisa Baydush

Come on in, come on in,
Come on in to my sukkah!
Come on in, come on in,
Come on in, it's Sukkot!

My sukkah's open, it's open to you!
My sukkah's open to friends, old and new.

My sukkah's open, shalom chaverim!
My sukkah's open, b'ruchim haba'im!

My sukkah's open, come in, have a seat!
My sukkah's open, have something to eat!

Boker Tov

by Lisa Baydush

Boker tov, good morning, my friends!
I'm so glad to see you— and you and you and...
Boker tov, good morning, my friends!
I'm so glad to see you!

Clap your hands (clap 2x) if you're ready to sing,
Wave your hands way up high,
Now wiggle your fingers and tickle your toes,
And open your mouth real wide,
and sing with me now...

Tap your knees (tap 2x) if you're ready to sing,
Now stretch from side to side,
Take a deep breath in and blow it out,
And open your mouth real wide,
and sing with me now...

Build It Up by Ellen Allard, adapted

Build it up. Build—it—up.
Build it up. Build—it—up! (repeat)

Gonna build a sukkah build it up so high,
See the stars— up in the sky;
Shake the lulav, shake it here and there,
Shake it to show God is everywhere!

You're invited, won't you come on in?
We'll have a meal together, now let's begin!
It's the time for us to rejoice,
Sing to God, now lift your voice!

Sukkot Hokey Pokey

to the tune of The Hokey Pokey
adapted by Judy Caplan Ginsburgh and Lisa Baydush

You hang an apple here,
You hang an apple there,
You take a bunch of apples
and you hang them everywhere
You say a little bracha (that's a blessing!)
and you eat a yummy meal
Sukkot's a real cool deal, YEAH!

What else do we hang in the sukkah?

Shake Shake Shake (The Sukkot Lulav)

by Ellen Allard, adapted by Larry Eschler

Shake, shake, shake... na, na, na, na, na, na (3x)
The Sukkot lulav

We shake it to the front, we shake it to the right,
We shake it to the back, the Sukkot lulav!
Then we shake it to the left, we shake it to the sky,
We shake it to the ground, the Sukkot lulav!

The myrtle are the eyes, the willow are the lips,
The palm is the spine, the Sukkot lulav!
The etrog is the heart (3x), the Sukkot lulav!

The Lulav Shake

by Steve Dropkin

Sukkot is a harvest holiday,
The celebration lasts for seven days;
We build our sukkah, then we decorate,
A special booth in which we congregate

Do the lulav shake (shake, shake, shake)! (3x)
Do the lulav shake!

The symbols of Sukkot are quite unique,
They show God's presence the entire week;
The etrog's smell, it gets into the air;
We wave the lulav everywhere!

Party in the Sukkah

by Lisa Baydush

Gonna party in the sukkah (3x)
Gonna party in the sukkah all week long!

And dance, dance, dance, dance 'n dance,
Dance, dance, dance, dance 'n dance,
And dance, dance, dance, dance 'n dance...

Invite friends to the sukkah...
Eat out in the sukkah...
Star-gaze from the sukkah...
Sleep out in the sukkah...

HALLELUYAH!

Praise ~ הללויה

Halleluyah

by Lisa Baydush

Hallelu Halleluyah (3x), Halleluyah!

Sing a new song! Play a new tune!
Pray a new prayer! Halleluyah!

Great, Mighty and Awesome

by Ellen Allard

Great, mighty and awesome (yeah!) (3x)
God Supreme!

We sing love, we sing praise,
We sing joy all our days...

The word Sukkot means "booths," and refers to the temporary dwellings in which we are commanded to live during this seven-day holiday. The sukkah is a temporary shelter covered with cut branches that commemorates the huts that farmers would build in the fields during harvest time and those of the Israelites as they wandered in the desert for forty years.

A sukkah may take a variety of forms as long as it satisfies a few basic requirements. A sukkah must have at least three walls and the roof must be covered with s'chach, a product of the earth that is no longer attached to the earth, such as tree branches. The s'chach should provide more shade than sunlight in the daytime, yet allow the brightest stars to be visible at night.

It is a mitzvah to wave the lulav every day during Sukkot. The proper time is in the morning, either before the morning service or during the service immediately before Hallel, songs of praise to God. Stand facing east, hold the lulav in front of you and shake it three times, then to your right, over your shoulder, to your left, up above you, and then towards the ground..
