You'll Need:

1. Fruit-shaped candy containers (found at the Dollar Store)
2. Rice and/or small beads

Empty the powdery sugar from each container, and clean thoroughly.

When dry, fill partially with dry rice and beads.

Use glue-gun to seal the tops so that children cannot open the containers.

Shake, Shake, Shake That Lulav

to the tune of Skip to My Lou, adapted by Judy Caplan Ginsburgh and Lisa Baydush
Use the fruit as an etrog and shake it with a laminated picture of a lulav for Sukkot.

Shake, shake, shake it to the east,
Shake, shake, shake it to the west,
Shake, shake, shake it up above,
Shake, shake, shake that lulav!

Shake, shake, shake it to the north,
Shake, shake, shake it to the south,
Shake, shake, shake it to the ground,
Shake, shake, shake that lulav!

Shake, shake, shake it in the air,
Shake, shake, shake it everywhere,
Shake, shake, shake it up with love,
Shake, shake, shake that lulav!

The Lulav Shake

by Steve Dropkin

Sukkot is a harvest holiday,
The celebration lasts for seven days;
We build our sukkah, then we decorate
A special booth in which we congregate!

Chorus:

Do the lulav shake (shake, shake, shake)! (3x) Do the lulav shake!

The symbols of Sukkot are quite unique,
They show God's presence the entire week;
The etrog's smell, it gets into the air,
We wave the lulav everywhere! (chorus)
