

Tikkun Olam

by Lisa Baydush © 2004, capo 2

Chorus:

[Am]Tikkun olam, tikkun [Em-Am]olam,
tikkun olam, tikkun [Dm-Am]olam (2x)

We were slaves back in [Em]Pharoah's [Am]day,
we value freedom in [Dm]every [Am]way
We marched with Martin for [Em]civil [Am]rights, we champion [Dm]freedom's [Am]light
Tikkun olam [Em-Am] tikkun olam [Em-Am]

Reach out your hand, do what [Dm]you can do
To try to try to help someone, it's called "tik-[Am]kun olam."
Fight injustice [Dm]wherever you can, and always lend a [Am]helping hand. (chorus)

It's our duty to [Dm]do mitzvot, to repair the world,
It's called "tik-[Am]kun olam"...
Clean up a stream, plant a [Dm]garden or tree,
Cook a meal, teach a [Am]child to read.
Tikkun olam [Em-Am] tikkun olam [Em-Am]

[Am]What you [Am7]do can be [F]big or [Am]small... what [F]matters [Dm7]is...
[G] that you cared at [Am]all! (chorus)

Take some time and think of [Dm]all the ways
You could spread some sunshine
in some[Am]body's day
If we reach out and do [Dm]what we can,
we are truly children of the [Am]Promised Land (chorus)
