

Spice Up Your Seder!

A Jewish Study Center Passover Workshop
presented by Lisa Baydush
April 7, 2008

Crafting a Seder is an art. It requires thoughtful planning, from the food to the tables to the Seder itself. Just as you wouldn't try to whip together a holiday meal for your entire extended family an hour before they arrive, don't make the mistake of opening your haggadah for the first time at the Seder itself. Sit down and read through it in advance, planning what readings you will include and how you will integrate songs and activities that will engage and involve your family and guests. You don't have to be a Jewish gourmet to spice up your Seder... it just takes a little planning and the right ingredients!

The purpose of the Seder is to retell the story of the Exodus from Egypt, to transmit the values, the history and the meaning of the holiday to your children. The purpose of this workshop is to offer ideas for how to do so in a way that is both meaningful and fun! In this hand-out, I have provided tips, ideas, song suggestions, and sites to visit on the Internet to help you develop your own unique Seder. Please feel free to contact me by email, and do let me know how it goes! ☺

Chag Sameach!

3. And You Were There – Bibliodrama

- Provide props and costumes so children can act out the story.
- Sing and dance as you build cities for Pharaoh, cross the sea, etc.

C'mon, let's all sing a song together...

Miriam's Song by Debbie Friedman

Chorus:

And the women dancing with their timbrels followed Miriam as she sang her song.
Sing a song to One whom we've exalted, Miriam and the women danced and danced the whole night long.

And Miriam was a weaver of unique variety.
The tapestry she wove was one which sang our history.
With every thread and every strand she crafted her delight.
A woman touched with spirit, she dances toward the light. (chorus)

As Miriam stood upon the shores and gazed across the sea.
The wonder of this miracle she soon came to believe.
Whoever thought the sea would part with an outstretched hand,
And we would pass to freedom, and march to the Promised Land. (chorus)

And Miriam the Prophet took her timbrel in her hand.
And all the women followed her just as she had planned.
And Miriam raised her voice with song, she sang with praise and might,
We've just lived through a miracle; we're going to dance tonight! (chorus)

One Small Step by Peri Smilow

Nachshon ben Aminidav was just one face in the crowd
He was tired and he was hungry, he was scared but he was proud;
He had walked across the desert to escape slavery
But now he's caught between his taskmasters and the waters of the Red Sea

Pharaoh and his armies were comin' up fast from behind
And the Israelites were arguing, they were of two minds:
Some said we should turn around, go back to what we know,
Slavery can't be half as bad as drowning.

Chorus:

You gotta take one small step, one small step, You gotta take one small step for freedom (2x)

The other side, well, they were very few, said, "No, this cannot be.
We can't go back, we've come so far in fleeing slavery.
If we just stay put, we think you'll find that God will make a move
And a miracle will save us all – just wait." (chorus)

No one noticed Nachshon over by the rippling tide
He had one foot in the water, his shoes at his side
He took one step, then another, until he barely could breathe—
And just when the world went dark, the waters parted, and we were free—! (chorus)

Let My People Go

When Israel was in Egypt land, let my people go.
Oppressed so hard they could not stand, let my people go.

Chorus:

Go down, Moses, way down in Egypt land, tell ol' Pharaoh, let my people go.

Thus saith the Lord, bold Moses said... If not I'll smite your people dead... (chorus)
As Israel stood by the water side... By God's command it did divide... (chorus)

Pharaoh, Pharaoh by Mah Tovu to the tune of Louie Louie

Chorus:

Pharaoh, Pharaoh, ooh baby, let my people go! No! Yeah Yeah Yeah, Yeah!
Pharaoh, Pharaoh, ooh baby, let my people go!

A burnin' bush told me just the other day that I should go to Egypt and say:
It's time to let my people be free, listen to God if you won't listen to me! I said... (chorus)

Well me and my people goin' to the Red Sea with Pharaoh's army comin' after me.
I took my staff, put it in the sand, and all of God's people walked on dry land singin'... (chorus)

Well Pharaoh's army was a-comin' too, so what'd'ya think that God did do?
Had me take my staff and clear my throat, and all of Pharaoh's army did the dead man's float! (chorus)

Well that's the story of the stubborn goat, Pharaoh should have known that chariots don't float!
The answer is simple, it's easy to find, when God says, "GO!" you had better mind! (chorus)

Avadim Hayinu

Avadim hayinu, ha-yi-nu, Atah b'nei chorin, b'nei chorin
A-va-dim—ha—yi-nu, Atah (clap, clap) Atah (clap, clap) b'nei chorin,
