Clap your hands if you're ready to sing,
Wave your hands way up high,

And open your mouth real wide,

Take a deep breath in and blow it out,

And the world goes around and around and around.

I've got a Shabbat feeling in my yadayim, in my yadayim, in my yadayim;

There's a Dinosaur by Linda Arnold (adapted)

Knock knock knock! I'll get it! Shalom! Wow! It's a dinosaur!

There's a dinosaur,
Knockin' at my door,
Knockin' 1 - 2 - 3! Knock! Knock! Knock!
Oh, there's a dinosaur, knockin' at my door,
and he's come to have Shabbat with me!

I opened up the door and I said, "Come in!"
He wagged his tail and gave me a grin.
He squeezed and he squeezed
'til he came right thru,
with the door, the window and the front wall too! OY! (chorus)

He rubbed his tummy and he said, "Let's eat!"
We sat down at the table
for a homemade Shabbas treat.
He reached for the challah
as my mom walked in the room.
"No," she said, "that's not what well-raised Jewish dinos do!" OOPS!

First we'll light the candles,
then we'll drink the wine,
then we'll eat the challah,
and then it's dinnertime! AAH! (chorus)

Challah in the oven gonna watch it rise!

Right before my very eyes!

Twist and braid it so it's nice and tight!

Gonna take it out when it's nice and hot...
Gonna eat it all up right on the spot!

I can't wait 'til the challah comes out!

Gonna eat my challah with lots of honey...
It's so yummy in my tummy!
